Chesapeake Bay Deepsea Fishing Day Trip, June 16, 2007, 5:30 am to 7:30 pm

All deepsea fishing tackle will be provided. No license required, it is part of the headboat fee. Pack a lunch and snacks for the headboat. Scouts participating will be able to fulfill one or more requirements for the Fishing badge. Scouts are encouraged to use Dramamine or other seasickness-preventive medicine in order to enjoy the trip thoroughly. The trip will almost certainly be on a headboat out of Solomon's Island or St. Mary's County. The fishing will be for stripers and (less likely) bluefish, and a good fish can run upwards of 40 inches (we're not talking sunfish and bluegills here). You may keep any fish that meet the minimum size requirements, or give them away, or release them. Scouts should wear appropriate layers of clothing, bring rain gear and wear non-skid deck-appropriate shoes. Remember that wind/water conditions may make the day considerably cooler on the water than on land, so be sure to bring warm enough clothing to compensate for wind/clouds/rain.
